Guard the Ballot Box.

We would enjoin upon our loyal friends, especially of the interior counties, the necessity of guarding well the approaches to the ballot box on election day. Let them see that a sufficient number of responsible and competent men are every moment during the day at the polls, to challenge the vote of any not authorized to deposit a ballot. It should be clearly understood that going into a county fifteen days previous to the election hired for the sole purpose of casting a vote in furtherance of treason, does not enable a man to acquire a residence so as to permit him to vote for County officers. Let every such vote be challenged, and see that, if the vote is accepted, the challenge be recorded with it, and keep memoranda of the testimony thus secured under oath, for use in the Legislature in the event of a contest being possible. Removal from the county in which new comers have thus voted, and resumption of their former places of abode will be, in the minds of any intelligent and honest Legislature, prima facie evidence of fraud, and such votes will be by them set aside as illegal. Make all these hireling Copperheads swear in their votes, and propound all lawful questions while they are under oath, touching their having vacated their former residences. In this manner the success of the Union ticket will be secured beyond any peradventure.

THE RUSE OF THE COPPERHEADS.—It is now pretty generally understood that the only reason why the Democratic Convention of Multnomah county did not present an electrotyped ticket, was because they could better subserve the purposes of the Confederate States by having some of their less offensive sympathizers, aided by a very few bona but very gullible men of Union sympathies, get up a ticket to be called "Independent Union." They were confident of rallying to its support a goodly number of men who failed of nominations sought in the Union Convention, and to some slight extent they were justified by the result. To the credit of very many of the aspirants before the Union Convention be it said, that they have submitted to disappointment in a manner worthy of true Union devotees, and are still in the traces doing noble work for the success of their more fortunate competitors.

Can a loyal man vote the ticket that is acceptible to his neighbor who avows himself in sympathy with the South? Can he go from the polls to his home, reflect upon the advantages of the Government to protect that home, and feel reconciled to the thought that he has just stood side by side and voted the same ticket with a traitor? The blood of loyalty cannot course the veins of any same man who will vote the same ticket which an avowed enemy of the country pronounces satisfactory to himself. The only possible way of avoiding danger in this regard, is to accept nothing as true and loyal except that which has been originated in accordance with time-honored usage. The man who flies the regular nominations at the polls, injures himself, injures his country, and becomes an object of contempt even to the Democrats, whose first political commandment is—"Stand by the regular nominations."

INTERESTING EXPERIMENTS WITH SHOT AND IRON PLATES.—A private letter from an officer of the gunboat Essex, in Red river, published in the Cincinnati Gazette, gives this account of an interesting series of experiments at Fort De Russey:

Some experiments were tried with the 9-inch guns of the Essex, on the iron-casemated battery of Fort De Russey, prior to its destruction, to test its power of resistance and the strength of the guns. The writer says: "Our 9-inch pierced the iron and 20 inches of the wood, throwing the bars of iron all around. Some of the pieces of iron were thrown upward some 60 feet. One piece about 10 feet long came down endwise with such force that it ran plumb through a log 4 feet in cumference. Nobody could possibly have stood behind the casemate, the concussion was so tremendous, and the splinters would have killed them. We then tried the 100-pounders, with the same effect. We threw our solid shot against it, and in the same hole planted a shell, which exploded, throwing up the [illegible] for 10 feet all round. After we had experimented till the captain was satisfied that the place was not impregnable, as the rebels thought, we set fire to it and burned the remaining timbers.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

Dates to June 1.

Sherman's Army still fighting its way down to Atlanta.

CONTINUED SUCCESSES.

Warren's Corps within Seven Miles of Richmond.

Gen. Grant's Base of Supplies changed to the White House, on York River.

Constant Fighting.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The Commercial's letter from Butler's army, the 28th, says that an expedition of some is magnitude about starting—destination a secret; two or three days will determine it.

WASHINGTON, May 30—Midnight.—A portion of Butler's forces at Bermuda Hundred not being needed for offensive operations, they have been transferred, under command of Gen. Smith, to the Army of the Potomac, and are supposed to have formed a junction by this time.

Dispatches from General Canby state that he is actively engaged in re-supplying the troops brought back by Banks, and is organizing the forces west of the Mississippi. In the division which now includes the departments of Missouri, Arkansas and Louisiana, Rosecrans, Steele and Banks remain in command of their respective departments under orders from Gen. Canby, his military supervision being there the same as formerly exercised by General Sherman, over the departments of Ohio, Cumberland and Tennessee.

(Signed) STANTON.

The Star says that Banks has been appointed Military Governor of Louisiana, headquarters at New Orleans.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Yesterday's Commercial says that it is rumored that a strong clique is engaged to put up the price of gold to 200. During the week ending yesterday, the demand was almost exclusively speculative. Sales were made as high as 194; market closing about 193.

The Times Washington special says that the House Committee on Foreign Affairs has expressed the opinion that Congress should indicate the policy the Government should pursue in regard to the French in Mexico.

The Herald says it has information improper to publish at this time, giving full details of a highly important movement now taking place on the Peninsula. News of an important character may be expected any hour.

The Herald's correspondent, under date of the 26th, says that what forces Beauregard has not sent to Lee remain on our front.

Gen. Winder, who had charge of the Richmond prisons, has changed his quarters to Goldsborough. The Union prisoners are removed from Libby prison.

The Petersburg papers of Friday announce that their loss in the fight with Butler was 304 wounded, whom they had taken to the hospital; killed not mentioned.

CHICAGO, May 31.—The tax bill was under consideration in the Senate yesterday. Conness moved as a substitute for tax on gold and silver, products by quartz mills etc., the following, which was adopted:

Bullion in lump gold, bars or otherwise, a duty of one half of one per cent, ad valorem, to be paid by the assayer of the same, who shall stamp the product of the same as Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury; sales, transfers, exchange, transportation and exportation of gold and silver, assayed in any mint of the United States, or private assay, unless stamped as prescribed in the general regulation, is hereby declared unlawful and every person or corporation who shall transfer, transport, exchange, export or deal, such shall be subject to a penalty of $100 for each offense and imprisonment from four months to two years.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 31.—A portion of the troops at Bermuda Hundred under Gen. Smith have been sent in transports with great celerity up York river to White House—Grant's new base of supplies. Gilmore remains with Butler at Bermuda Hundred. Large quantities of supplies have been sent to the White House. Grant's communications with this point are complete and work well.

A messenger from Grant reports that on the morning of the 30th our army crossed to Mechanicsville near the Chickahominy with but little opposition. Sheridan had routed the enemy's cavalry at all points, capturing many prisoners.

ALBANY, June 1.—News has just been received that the whole central part of the village of Glenn's Falls, including two banks, two churches, the post-office, and a large number of dwellings and business houses, was destroyed by fire, which raged furiously for five hours. Date not given.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The Herald's special says: Secretary Chase has determined to put on the market from fifty to one hundred millions six per cent. bonds redeemable after 1881. Also that the French Government had assured Minister Dayton that no rebel iron-clads would be permitted to leave France.

The Persia took out half a million of specie today.

ST. LOUIS, June 1.—An arrival from Little Rock represents all quiet in that vicinity.

Gen. Shelby left Brownsville two weeks ago, with a force estimated at from 1,600 to 2,000. General West, with several companies of cavalry, has been sent against him. Shelby's force is represented as well mounted.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—An unofficial dispatch from Kingston, dated May 31st, says: Major Hopkins of Stoneman's staff who came from the front this afternoon, says the rebels attacked us at 7 o'clock this morning. By 10 o'clock the affair was over and the enemy repulsed, and our line pushed to the railroad at Marietta. The accomplishment of this object has been the purpose of Sherman's movements. Additional forces are continually reaching him; also ample supplies. [STANTON.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Dispatches from General Grant, dated 6 o'clock P.M., at Hawes' Shop, read as follows:

The enemy came over on our left and attacked us. They were repulsed with heavy slaughter. To relieve Warren, who was on our left, Meade speedily ordered an attack by the balance of our line. Hancock was the only one who received the orders in time to make an attack before dark. He drove the enemy from his entrenched skirmish line, and still holds it. I have no report to make of the losses, but suppose them to be light.

Other official dispatches, not from Grant, were received at the same time, and give more details as follows:

The first dispatch was dated 8 o'clock the morning of the 30th. Warren has pushed down on our left until his flank reached a point south of Shalby Grove Church. Crawford, having got detached from the rest of the corps, was attacked and driven back a little. The enemy threw their force, which it appears consisted of Ewell's corps, upon Warren's left, attacking them, but were repulsed. The engagement was short, sharp and decisive. Warren holds his ground, with advantage, seven miles from Richmond. He reports that he has taken a considerable number of prisoners, and that there are many rebel dead on the field; he makes no report of his own loss.

His latest dispatch says that the enemy are moving to his left, apparently to clear the approach to Richmond in that direction.

On our right, an action has been raging ever since dark, but now it has closed. As soon as the enemy attacked Warren's left, Wright and Hancock were ordered to pitch in, but they don't seem to have been ready till after nightfall. No report has been received from them yet.

The other dispatch, above referred to, dated 6 o'clock P. M., states that in Hancock's attack last night, Col. Brooke drove the enemy out of a strongly entrenched line and holds it. Losses are not reported.

Burnside's whole corps got across Tolopatamoy creek last evening, and is in full connection with Warren.

Smith ought to arrive at New Castle by noon, from whence he can support Warren and Burnside if necessary.

Sheridan, with Gregg's and Torbett's divisions of cavalry, is on our left flank.

Wilson is on our right and rear for purposes reported in former dispatches.

The country occupied is thickly wooded with lofty pines.

Opening indications this morning are that the enemy have fallen back south of the Chickahominy.

(Signed) STANTON.

WASHINGTON, May 31—11:30 P. M.—The following was received from Butler yesterday:

All day heavy firing was heard in the vicinity of Mechanicsville.

Six refugees from Richmond report that Grant was on the Mechanicsville turnpike, and that he was driving the enemy.

A woman reports that a meeting was held yesterday while she was in Richmond, to see whether the city should be surrendered or burned. The Mayor advocated a surrender and was put in Castle Thunder last evening.

The enemy attacked my lines yesterday and were repulsed. To-day, all day, they have been demonstrating against my works on Spring Hill, on the eastern bank of the Appotomax, but were repulsed.

(Signed) STANTON.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Letters from Sherman's army to the 26th, give a few details of the movements to that date.

Howard, Palmer, Hooker, Logan and Dodge's corps, were at and slightly beyond Dallas, flanking the rebel position at Altoona. A this point, Johnson had halted to make resistance. He occupies a very strong natural and powerfully fortified position. When our army moved on the previous Monday, Schofield's corps made a demonstration at several points, leading the enemy to believe we proposed to attack directly in front. While thus engaged, the rest of the army marched rapidly to Etowan and crossed without serious opposition at a point about 15 miles below the railroad bridge, and immediately resuming the line of march, had but slight skirmishing and reached Dallas on the evening of the 25th. Schofield crossed at Etowah Station, and was at the date of letter, moving down the ridge to join the main body, his rear guard constantly skirmishing with the enemy. Johnson was again completely outgeneraled, and was compelled to abandon his stronghold at Altoona and fight, if at all, in the country south. The country our army now operating in has splendid roads. Our trains continue to run to Kingston and Rome, though it is plain Johnson can, if he chooses, occupy a point in our rear.

Sherman seems perfectly indifferent to this fact. His army is rationed for a march to Altoona and beyond. He attacked and captured a train of 50 wagons between Cossville and Kingston. The enemy show no intention of an attack on our rear.

Our forces burned a million dollars worth of cotton at Rome.

NEW YORK, May 31.—An Atlanta dispatch to the Richmond Enquirer dated the 26th, says the people of northern Georgia are crowding into Atlanta to await the impending struggle. The Relief Committee are doing all that is possible and appeals to the people of Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina, to aid them immediately. Help is needed for the destitute women and children.

CLEVELAND, May 31.—Convention called to order at 11 o'clock, ex-Gov. Johnson of Pennsylvania chosen temporary chairman. There were between three and four hundred delegates present. Some discussion occurred on the motion to appoint a committee on credentials, many delegations opposing it on the ground that many citizens present representing political organizations in several states and yet were not furnished with credentials. It was finally resolved to entitle names of all present only credentials required being in declaration of response calls for Cleveland convention. Committee on permanent organization reported, for President, John Cochrane of New York, 15 Vice-Presidents, and 4 Secretaries. Mr. Cochrane returned thanks for the honor conferred upon him, and addressed the convention at considerable length.

At the afternoon session, the Committee on Credentials reported and found the following States represented: Ohio, Illinois, Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Iowa, Missouri, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Wisconsin, Tennessee, Maine, Indiana, New Hampshire and District of Columbia.

The committee on resolutions reported sundry rules for the government of the Convention, recommending the rules of the House of Representatives and to take votes for candidates by States according to representation in Congress. This was opposed by several delegates, who favored voting as a great National Mass Convention, each individual to have an equal voice with his associates. After debate the objectionable clauses were stricken out.

The following is the substance of the resolutions reported:

1st, That the Federal Union shall be preserved.

2d, That the Constitution and laws of the United States must be obeyed.

3d, That the rebellion must be suppressed by force of arms and without compromise.

4th, That the rights of free speech, press, habeas corpus, must be held inviolate save in districts where martial law has been proclaimed.

5th, That the rebellion has destroyed slavery and the Federal constitution should be amended to prohibit its re-establishment and secure to all men absolute equality before law.

6th, That integrity and economy is demanded at all times in the administration of the government, and that in time of war waste of them is criminal.

7th, That the right asylum, except for crime and subject to law, is the recognized principle of American liberty, and any violation of it cannot be overlooked and must not go unrebuked.

8th, National policy known as the Monroe doctrine has become a recognized principle, and that the establishment of an anti-republican government on this continent by any foreign power cannot be tolerated.

9th, That the gratitude and support of the nation is due the brave soldiers and earnest leaders of the Union army and navy for their heroic achievements in defense of our imperiled country.

10th, That we favor the one-term policy for the President.

11th, That the Constitution should be so amended as that the President and Vice President should be elected by a direct vote of the people.

12th, That the question of the reconstruction of the rebellious States belong to the people through their Representatives in Congress, and not to the Executive.

13th, That confiscation of the lands of the rebels and their distribution among soldiers and actual settlers is a wise measure.

Judge Carroll, chairman of the committee on resolutions states that the committee is unanimous in all except the 13th, and as a matter of expediency thought it not advisable to recommend it, but the majority instructed him to report it for the consideration of the Convention. The resolutions were voted upon separately and adopted.

Motion for the Convention to proceed to the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President was carried.

JEFF. DAVIS AT HOME.—That amiable journal, the Richmond Examiner, draws a pleasing picture of Jefferson Davis in an article on the Confederate fast-day:

Mr. Davis has the reputation of unbending obstinacy and hauteur; but that is for his friends. When his own supporters and rightful counsellors, the men who created this Confederate movement and elevated him to his great office, approach him with respectful advice or remonstrance, it may be that he is hard as flint; but the public enemy command him, at his peril, to eat his own words and come down from his high ground, and who so politic and "reasonable" as he? His stern self-will is for us—his Confederates—his gracious gentleness to our foes. Triumph and gratified pride are for them; for us, fasting, humiliation and prayer.

Thus we prepare ourselves, and we trust our readers also, to meet in fitting frame of mind the services of Friday, the 8th of April. Let us fast on this day as only Confederates can; let us clothe our souls in the sackcloth and ashes of humility; and let us pray, saying: "From all privy conspiracy and buggermugger, from canting and recanting and all other shuffling sin from the cradle and assaults of the devil and Yankee Democrats—good Lord deliver us!"

The immediate occasion of this is, that Jeff. Davis has not hanged General Butler, as he threatened to do, but has found himself compelled to enter into negotiations with him for the exchange of prisoners.

HARD FIGHT OVER A REBEL FLAG.—The New Orleans Delta of April 10th contains the following:

When flags are captured in the height of battle, it shows close and severe fighting. In the recent bloody engagements near Mansfield, the battle-worn and weather-beaten banner of a Texas regiment was captured by Capt. Doxie, of the Sixteenth Indiana Mounted regiment, attached to the First Brigade of Lee's cavalry, after one of the most desperate hand-to-hand encounters of the war. When the stalwart Indianians mount the rough riders of Texas, there can be no child's play, and, consequently, we are not surprised to learn that the ground was piled with slain for the possession of this flag, which bears the inscription, "Texans never can be slaves." Capt. Doxie, the hero of the fight, came forth from the battle covered with wounds, inflicted by sabre strokes and pistol shot, and is now lying in a precarious condition at the St. James Hospital. The flag was brought down to the city by Colonel Brisbane, of Gen. Lee's staff, and was yesterday presented to Miss Binney Banks, the "daughter of the brigade," in the presence of her mother, at the residence of the General.

The battle-flag is a very large one, fringed with silk; the inscription, which is partly on the upper and partly on the lower border, reads thus: "Texans never can be slaves." The flag was once blue, but has now assumed a greenish hue. Capt. Doxie, the hero of the affair, is severely wounded in the face, being shot through both cheeks; he stands a very fair chance of recovery, and certainly deserves promotion for his gallant conduct.

THE WOMAN WHO KISSED THE HORSE.—We have heard of the old woman that kissed the cow, but we have seen the woman that kissed the horse. A few days since, a team arrived here from below, when one of Markleville's fairest daughters came out of the house, and putting her arms around the neck of one of the leaders, deliberately "smacked" him. The horse, by whining and rubbing his face against the woman, seemed to appreciate it. It appears that the horse had been brought over the plains by the lady, and had become very much attached to her, and it was no doubt reciprocated, as her kind act showed.—Alpine Chronicle.

SINGULAR WILL OF JOHN C. RIVES.—This document which has been filed in the Probate Court at Washington, excites considerable interest, on account of containing some apparently eccentric features. It is dated April 8th (a few days before his death.) The Congressional Globe printing office, with all the appurtenances, excepting the bound volumes of the Globe and the stereotype plates of the work, is left to Franklin and Jefferson Rives; his second and third sons; and the rest of the estate, consisting of money, property in Washington, lands in Prince George County, Maryland, and $50,000 in Missouri State bonds, to the other five children.

It is provided, that the family mansion and lands, (fifty acres,) in Prince George County, Maryland, shall not be sold out of the family. Any one of the heirs may purchase the rights of others; but when it happens that a blood relation of the deceased no longer resides upon the place, then the house and land is to revert to the Government then having dominion over them.

The will provides for the gradual emancipation of all slaves belonging to the estate. It ends by expressing the desire of the deceased that the remains of himself and wife be placed in marble coffins and interred in a fire-proof vault, in the Congressional Cemetery, where the stereotype plates of the Congressional Globe are also to be deposited.

23. In every age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men so often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system, is acknowledged by all.

Be particular to enquire for Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, and take no other. Sold everywhere.

Retiring from the Practice of Medicine.
A CARD.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY begs leave to announce to the public, and particularly to his patrons on the Pacific Coast, that he is about to close his business, with the view of retiring for the present from the arduous labors of his profession.

As it is his intention during the ensuing Fall to leave the United States, for the purpose of visiting Europe, he will not receive any new patients after the first day of July, 1864. Those, therefore, who may desire his services will apply within a reasonable time. Dr Czapkay desires to assure those who are now under his care, that they will continue to receive all the attention which his obligations prescribe and their cases respectively demand. Those who hold contracts guaranteeing a cure are hereby requested to report to Dr. Czapkay before the first day of June, 1864, whether or not they are satisfied that a cure has been effected in their cases respectively. All who do not thus report within the time specified will be regarded and treated as cured.

In taking leave of his patients and the public, Dr. Czapkay desires to express his profound gratitude for the extraordinary patronage bestowed upon him, and the confidence reposed in his professional ability.

During his residence in California, Dr Czapkay has treated successfully upwards of twenty-five thousand patients, which is the best guarantee that his course of treatment has been rewarded with a success at once personally gratifying and almost unprecedented in the annals of medicine.

Any physician in good standing, who may desire to purchase the interest of Dr Czapkay in his "Institute," and the good will of his business, may make application at state proposals.

Council adjourned

THE PORTLAND PRECINCTS —The Portland Precincts are so strangely bounded that it will require some study in the minds of the voters next Monday, to clearly understand them. At the city election it made no difference, as the city limits are clearly defined, but as the election on Monday some of our city residents will be called upon to vote in the city, and for the purpose of having the boundaries understood, we have procured the following descriptions from the records of the County Commissioners.

1 Portland Precinct commences at the south west corner of the county; thence north to the base line; thence east to the intersection of said line to Tenth street, in the city of Portland, thence south along the center of said Tenth street thence east along the center of said Main street, to the Willamette river; thence up the river to the intersection with the north line of the county; thence west along said line to the place of beginning.

2 Portland Precinct commences at the junction of Main street with the Willamette river; thence west along the north line of said Morrison street to its junction with Tenth street thence north along the center of Tenth street to the base line; thence west along said base line to the junction with the east line of Washington county; thence northerly along the east line of said county to the south line of the land claim of Daniel Harris; thence easterly along said claim line and thereof to the west bank of the Willamette river; thence southerly to the north line of James Thompson's land claim; thence east to the north line of said claim and continuation thereof, to its junction with the east line of township 2 north, range 2 east thence with said line to its junction with the base; thence along the base line to its junction with the west bank of the Willamette river; thence to place of beginning."

The Judges of the Election for the said 1st Precinct are Henry Law, S J Mc[illegible] and Matthew Patten The place of voting will be at the Court House In the 2d Portland Precinct the Judges are Geo L Flanders, Wm Cornell, and Thomas J [illegible] The place of voting will be at the Engine House of Multnomah Fire Company, No 2

RAILWAY —The horse attached to the Emigrant baggage wagon, that caused such a stampede of teams a few days since, on this run last evening Starting from the corner of Oak street the course selected was up Front street, and a "blazing" race was made all round, between pedestrians flee[illegible] and the horse striking out at his best gait, and stopped near Taylor That horse is a [illegible] to some person, besides being very fast

TRANSACTIONS —As showing what is placed upon the new mines in Boise, we hear of a single transaction yesterday, in which $100 per foot was paid for one foot of "Crane and Driggs" stock The sale was bona fide, and at night the stock was much sought The appearance is very flattering, and indicate great results to follow the opening of the Owyhee mines

DEPARTURE OF THE OREGON —The steamer Oregon left at 8 o'clock last evening for Victoria and San Francisco carrying a light freight, and but few passengers The treasure amounted to $330,067 30, shipped as follows

Wells Fargo & Co	$291,000 00
Ladd & Tilton "	15 000 00
Allen & Lewis "	12,500 00
O S N Co "	8,667 30
E W Corbett, "	2,900 00
Total	$330,067 30

SALTING A CLAIM —Quite an excitement was created on the lot, corner of Front and Washington streets yesterday morning A man procured a lot of brass slings, and "salted" the reputed spots of gold deposits, in regular miner's style Soon small claims were staked off, picks, shovels and pans were procured and men and boys went to work with a will taking the dirt to the river bank to wash The results of their labors may be imagined.

TELEGRAPH MAST —The mast recently raised below this city for supporting the telegraph wire, at the point where it crosses the Willamette river, is 181 feet high

FLOUR —The steamer Senator brought fifty tons of flour from the upper Willamette, at one trip yesterday, most of which was transferred for shipment up the Columbia The O S N Company have reduced freights on flour shipped to the Dalles and Umatilla.

MAGNIFICENT CABINET WORK —We were invited last evening by Messrs Emil Lowenstein & Co, furniture dealers and upholsterers to examine a fine sofa of the Elizabethan style recently finished by them for the rostrum of the new Presbyterian Church in this city which will without doubt be the most superb affair of the kind ever turned out in the State Its frame is solid black walnut and richly carved the seat is [illegible] and the arms and back with crimson velvet The length is 12 feet, height 7 feet It is a present from Mrs D F Bradford to the church It can be seen at the manufactory until to morrow evening.

THE steamer Julia was brought out for a special trip to the Cascades with freight, today

The First Time on Skates.

HOW I WENT TO LEARN TO SKATE, HOW I FAILED, AND HOW I FELT.

BY A LADY.

I am not usually carried away by any new and fashionable pastime, however alluring it may be, but I certainly have had a strong penchant for skates, only increased by intense longing gazings into shop windows where those treach delightful articles are for sale, or tiptoe glances from the windows, at the skaters themselves, who seemed to enjoy it thoroughly—so that at last I concluded to actually try the sport in propria persona, and I "still live," to write about it.

I actually bought a pair of skates, though it was the most difficult thing I ever did—next to wearing them. The obliging shopkeeper would insist on my selecting from half a dozen different kinds, as if I could tell by miraculous intuition, the best, but I desperately took the best looking pair and paid for them, swinging them on my arm, as I had seen ladies in the cars do. Oh, that five dollars!

Well! after tea I started for the Park. My escort had an idea that I could skate—so had I. Arriving there we found an immense crowd dispersed throughout the warm building, getting on skates, chatting sociably, and changing about, kaleidoscope, fashion—some in plaid bloomers, with European scarfs and gay little caps, with streaming ribbons and jaunty red feathers, others in fur hoods and common attire; young ladies with long curls, attended by smart young cavaliers, displayed the daintiest feet imaginable, as they were shod with steel; and amiable mamas talked house keeping to each other at the stoves, while frater watched Seraphine from the corner of his eye, as she flirted with young Fitz Allen over her muff. It was a pretty suggestive scene, and I thought skating must be a fine thing.

When my turn come, I sat down, and submitted my feet to a colored individuals, feeling very much as one does who mounts a dentist's chair, in happy ignorance of the fate awaiting him. I tried to act naturally and indifferently, and, when the last buckle was adjusted, sat unconcerned looking at the stove, in no hurry to move. I had dismissed my cavalier, telling him I would meet him on the ice, though I had not the slightest idea how I should ever get there.

At last I stood up—I mean I intended to stand; but the floor I stood on was so narrow I concluded to sit down again, which I did wondering if the clogs our grandmothers wore were anything like skates.

I have no idea, now, how I got to the ice, I think it was by putting one foot forward, and planting it firmly there, then dragging the other up to it. By repeating this, I finally reached the ice, and saw my gallant waltzing with a fair damsel in plaid. I concluded to take him by surprise; for I felt confident the moment I touched ice I should be all right, I did not attempt a display at first, my skates were new, and rather stiff, so I stepped carefully from the platform letting both feet come down at once. I sat a little to begin with. Then I started forward; I knew I ought to keep my arms going, to maintain my equilibrium, and I was doing nicely, when some one must have touched me, for I fell flat on the ice, merely saving my "love of a bonnet" by hardening my elbows.

I got up gradually—indeed, I am not sure that I should have been up yet, all the way, but as a stout lady came past, I caught frantically at her dress, and assumed my perpendicular. She looked fiercely at me, and I have no doubt electrified a home audience that night, by relating how narrowly she escaped having her pockets picked by that "dreadful woman!"

My escort now sought me, to say that the "Champion of the World" was going to perform "circus" on the ice, and volunteered his assistance to get there. I hung on bravely, and flirted my skates as if we were on the best of terms, till the band struck up a lively air, and I essayed to "take a step" to the music. The step took me!

Ice is cold, particularly at this season of the year—it is hard, too, and liable to injure, if taken in large quantities; but it seemed to have an attachment for me, and as I went down, I enjoyed a delightful view of the starry world, and it seemed as if I could almost grasp the "dipper" by the handle. I got up and concluded to rest awhile.

The "champion" was starring it, ala Cubas on the surface of an ice theatre; his skates were good for something—he could go backward and forward on them, sideways and round-about, and stand on their toes, and dance, and do all sorts of gymnastics with them, as easily and gracefully as possible! He attempted to show off a novice, but he failed there! I could have beat him at that!

I think I should have staid there till the 4th of July melted the ice, if I had kept those skates on. I could not stand on them, nor walk, and I was miserable if I sat down, I felt like a Chinese.

Skating is not my "fort." It may do for some people—perhaps they like it; but I felt like a new creature when I took them off and "waved" again on terra firma. It is a comfort to be able to stand alone, and on good footing, and not feel creation sliding from under you, and the sky collapsing like a big umbrella.

Skates were a great institution when brother Sam went to see Deacon Holt's daughter, a long time ago. I was sixteen then—I think I must be about that now!

Well I hope the dear creatures who delight in that imaginative sport will not catch their death of cold, nor sprain their delicate ankles or spines beyond repair. I think, myself, house cleaning is much more rational amusement, and vastly less perilous, but then it is'nt so fashionable, by a good deal.

My bonnet has a soft crown now—a style that's a little out of date, but no matter—I am glad it wasn't my head.

I presented my skates to our errand boy Pat, the moment I reached home. He turned a somersault and pronounced them "bully" I think.

But this morning capped the climax. I made my appearance at nine, in a comfortable delaine wrapper, with a plaster at my side, and my face swelled out of recognition with neuralgia; one eye was totally oblivious of the light, and had a blue spot under it that made me think of Heenan. I felt the strong inclination for the hottest side of the stove, and had an admonition of ague. I did not heed the doorbell when it rang, and when Bridget informed me that the "Magazine man" was in the parlor, I wished him at the North Pole, or the Skating Pond. But I wanted Godey and Harper, so I walked resolutely in, though my gait was still of the skates—skatery. Good gracious! Young McLanguish, an exquisite of the choicest Broadway style, rose to meet me with the Atlantic still uncut, in his hand. It was his first call since his arrival, and he was got up dazzlingly. His handkerchief wafted subtle perfumes of frangipanni; mine smelled strong of camphor!

Well, it's all over. I went to the Park and skated—somewhat. It may be very delightful, very healthy, very intensely fashionable, but I fail to observe it. If there is but one step from the sublime to the ridiculous, I certainly took that step, and no other.—Chicago Journal.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. VALLANDIGHAM.—Paul, the apossel, on his way from Geroosalem 2 Demaskus, to persekoot the Crischens, seen a dazzlin lite which struck him blind. The old Dimocriey on the 13 uv October, on its way to glory; to persekoot the nigger, seed a lite which knocked it cr-zy. Wen yu've sucked a orange dry, natrelly yu fling away the peel, and if the froot proved sour and bitter, instid uv sweet, yu fling it a good dele futher, bein disgustid. Vallandiggum wuz our orange—we suck it wiggerously! but alas! lfling away the wuthless peel.

Myself and fluck is now all wun Democrats. We have alloz bin. We never agreed with the extremists uv our party, and we remained in the organization only becoz ez members thereof, we good restrane it from doin mischif. We wer zelus in the support of Vallandiggum, and workt hard to elect him, only that, bein his supporters, and havin elected him, we cood curb him.

Therefore, all our apparent opposition to the war waz zoely its most efishent support. I hope the people will see it.

At a bizniss meetin uv our church yesterday afternoon, the follerin resolutions wuz past:

WAREAS, Dimocriey flourishes best, wen it is successful; and

WAREAS, it is a tender flower, that don't bare the chilin frosts of adversity much; and

WAREAS, the people hev shode by the pokoolyer style uv their votin that they don't like Vallindiggum; therefore be it

Resolved, That Vallandiggum never wuz a representative of the Dimocratic ijea.

Resolved, That we do not endorse his views, or approve his acts, and never did.

Resolved, That onist old Al Linkin, by arresting uv him, and thereby forcin uv us into committin politikle sooicide by nominatin uv him, wuz guilty uv a heenus sin.

Resolved, That we aint ez much consarned about our habis corpuses ez we was afore the elecshun.

Resolved, That the war for the Union must go on, until its energies is subjoogated, and the banner of butty and glory waves over every stait, and the Dimocratic committis uv the various stats be requested to procure a sufficient number uv bayonets, and appoint sub-committis to wave 'em.

Resolved, That we air in favor ov subjoogashen, emancipashen, confiskashen, taxashen, conscripshen, extermineshen, negger enlistments, and if there is anything else the people desire, tlet 'em write us (post pade) and weel pass the necessary resolushun.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witness accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup this desirable point is attained by combination IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M D.,

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the great and subtle which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and first recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 16.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H. Anders & Co, Physicians and Chemists, New York.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and secretory organs is singularly soothing and corrective. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged:

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females.

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. Its cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.
